Official Program.
The official program was announced today. It is as follows:

Friday—Pilgrimage to Mt. Vernon by the Knights of Columbus and visitors led by the Supreme Council of the Order. The Supreme Council will go in special trains, leaving the electric railway station, at Twelfth street and Pennsylvania avenue, at 12:30 o'clock. At Mt. Vernon the Supreme Council of the Knights of Columbus, James A. Flaherty, of Philadelphia, Pa., will lay a wreath on the tomb of General Washington, in the name of the order.

Friday Evening—Public reception at National Museum, Tenth and B streets northwest. The doors of the Museum will open at 7:30 o'clock. Music by the United States Marine Band. Cuno H. Rudolph, president of the Board of District Commissioners, chairman of the reception committee, will, with his committee, head the receiving line. The Columbus memorial commission has also been notified to participate. The entire building will be open and lighted.

Automobile Parade—Automobiles, who will participate in the big motor parade, will assemble on the Eclipse south of the White House, at 7 o'clock and report to Joseph Stoddard, vice president of the citizens' automobile committee. Beginning at 7:30 o'clock there will be a pageant on the Avenue of flower bedecked automobiles.

The Unveiling.
Saturday—The unveiling of the Columbus statue will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Philander C. Knox, Secretary of State, will preside.

Invocation—Monks of Thomas A. Shahan, of the Catholic University.

Address—Justice Victor J. Dowling, of supreme court of New York.

Music—The Marine Band.

Address—Hon. James T. McCarry of Columbus Memorial Commission.

Unveiling the statue—Italian ambassador.

National salute of twenty-one guns.

Battery E, Third Artillery.

After the firing of twenty-one guns, laying of wreaths on statue.

Address—President William H. Taft.

Music—The Marine Band.

Benediction—Bishop Wilbur E. Thierkeid, of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Columbus Memorial Parade—The memorial parade will start at Seventeenth and Pennsylvania avenue, at 2 o'clock.

Gen. R. K. Evans, U. S. A., grand marshal. The route of parade is along Pennsylvania avenue to Second street, north on Second to F street, and Massachusetts avenue, past the President's reviewing stand, and out Massachusetts avenue to Stanton square, where the procession will be reviewed by the supreme officers of the Knights of Columbus.

Saturday evening—Grand public banquet at Convention Hall at 8 o'clock.

Fireworks.

Fireworks and illuminations—The fireworks display on the Monument Lot will start at 8 o'clock with the discharging of salutes. The set pieces will be touched off from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock. Pennsylvania avenue and the principal thoroughfares of the city will be illuminated, as well as all business houses and other buildings in the downtown section. E. C. Graham is chairman of the committee on fireworks and illumination.

Sunday—Grand public concert at Convention Hall by the United States Marine Band and Symphony Orchestra. Tickets for this function will be given in the hotels and at Convention Hall on Sunday evening.

Display of Fireworks.

The display of fireworks on Saturday night, on the White House ellipse, will be perhaps the most spectacular and brilliant of its kind ever seen in Washington.

It is the plan of the Knights of Columbus and the citizens' committee in charge of the celebration here Saturday to make this pyrotechnic occasion a fitting finale to the day's events. Samuel J. Prescott, vice chairman of the committee on fireworks, is in charge of the great illumination. The illumination will include Pennsylvania avenue from Seventeenth street to the foot of the Capitol, up First street to E, thence east to Delaware avenue, and out Delaware avenue to the memorial. Illumination will come directly after the display of fireworks. It will be arranged that it will make the heavens shine brilliantly. However, there will be no danger of fire to the adjoining buildings.

Chairman Isaac Gans, of the automobile parade committee, and Joseph Stoddard, marshal of the parade, say that the visitors to Washington will be given the time of their lives when Pennsylvania avenue is lighted up both Friday and Saturday nights.

Threats to Destroy Columbus Memorial; Rumor Heard Today

A detail of uniformed policemen around the Columbus memorial, on the Union station plaza, gave rise to a report this morning that threats had been made to blow up the memorial before the unveiling next Saturday. It was rumored that some aliens who are not in sympathy with the elaborate plans that are being made for the unveiling had written threatening letters to some of the men who were in charge of the ceremonies.

Major Sylvester, superintendent of police, said that so far as he knew no threats had been made to blow up the memorial, and that the police on duty around the plaza today were the regular detail stationed there all the time. He said no special guard had been placed around the memorial.

So far as I know, said the major, there is no foundation for any such rumor. I have heard of no threatening letters, and no extra precautions are being taken.

District K. of C. Leaders

EDWARD P. HARRINGTON, Deputy District of Columbia, in charge of local delegation in parade.

BANQUET AT CLOSE OF DUCKPIN SEASON

Potomac Council, K. of C., Spends Delightful Evening At the Continental.

Potomac Council, Knights of Columbus, duckpin league closed a most successful season at the Hotel Continental last evening. After the distribution of prizes and several short talks by some of the more lucky bowlers, a banquet was served in the palm room. Several solos were sung by Messrs. Smith and Daugherty.

Smoe thought the "party" was broken up when Father Fealy and Grand Knight Curtin pretended to call one of the impromptu contests. When the hoax was discovered there was much applause and Father Fealy was compelled to sing his famous dog song.

The hit of the evening was the imitable songs of Al S. Pennell, who has recently been initiated and who recited his vivid recollections in his topical songs.

The banquet was held under the auspices of Potomac Council's famous "Pop" committee, which is responsible for the formation of the duckpin league. The reputation that this committee has made for doing things in K. of C. circles in Washington was fully lived up to. President William A. Columbus of the Potomac Council, who presided, officially announced the bowling season closed.

Address By Dr. Elliott.

An address will be made this evening by the Rev. Dr. Elliott on the progress of the work in the Panama Canal Zone.

The Rev. Dr. Elliott, who is in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church.

DR. MICOU'S BODY ON WAY HERE FROM ABOARD FOR BURIAL

Noted Educator to Rest At Ivy Hill Cemetery, Near Alexandria.

The body of Dr. Richard W. Micou, professor of theology of the Episcopal Seminary, near Alexandria, who died in Oxford, England, Tuesday, is being sent to this country for burial. Interment will be at Ivy Hill Cemetery, Alexandria, about June 19.

Dr. Micou was born in New Orleans, June 12, 1848. At the outbreak of the civil war he was a student at the University of Alabama, and served in the Confederate army in the cadet corps. He completed his education at the University of Erlangen, Bavaria, and the University of Edinburgh, later receiving the degree of M. A. from Trinity College, and D. D. from Kenyon College. He prepared for the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church at the General Theological Seminary of New York and was ordained in 1872.

He was rector at Franklin, La., and Kittingburg, Pa., until 1877, then from 1877 to 1892, first rector of Trinity Church, Waterbury, Conn. In 1892 he accepted the chair of systematic divinity and fundamental theology at the Episcopal Divinity School, Philadelphia, and in 1894 he was elected to the same chair at the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Virginia, near Alexandria. In December, 1911, he was granted eighteen months leave of absence for the preparation of his contemplated books on theology and apologetics. He was in England, accompanied by his wife and son, Paul, until his death from heart failure at Oxford on Tuesday.

Dr. Micou married in 1872, Mary Dunlop, of New Orleans, La., and is survived by her and three children, Richard P. Micou, of Washington, D. C.; Paul Micou, a student at the Alexandria seminary; and Mrs. John M. Daniel, Jr., of the Episcopal High School, Alexandria.

Shot Before He Could Obey "Hands Up" Order

COBURN, Pa., June 6.—Not quick enough to respond to a demand of "hands up" on an Erie railroad freight train here early today, Thomas Sullivan, aged thirty-six, of New York, was shot three times and fatally injured. He was taken to Jamestown, N. Y., hospital. Four men were arrested charged with the crime.

The suspects had been employed on construction work of the road and were on their way to Buffalo. Sullivan says he was robbed.

Must Join Regiment.

Lieut. Philip H. Sheridan, Fifth Cavalry, son of General Sheridan, of civil war fame, has been ordered to join his regiment at Honolulu. He has been one of the military aides of the President and has for many months been on special duty at the office of the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds.

What is Castoria.

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhoea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. Albert W. Kahl, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have used Castoria in my practice for the past 26 years. I regard it as an excellent medicine for children."

Dr. Gustave A. Eisengraeber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. S. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. E. Eskildson, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

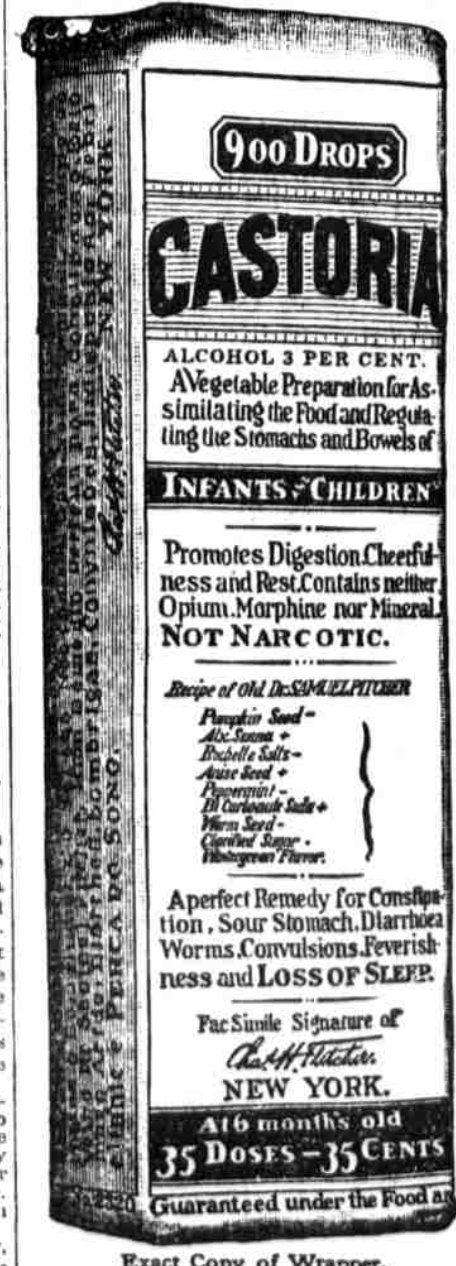

Dr. Edwin P. Pardee, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where maker alone knows what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."
